Campaign for the Dissemination of Spiritism

Goals:

- › Dissemination of Spiritism to a wider audience;
- › Multiplication of ideas;
- › Integration of Spiritist concepts in Society;
- › Promotion of Spiritist Books.

Inspired by André Luiz's phrase "the Doctrine must be taught in small portions" (from the book Spiritist Conduct), this campaign consists of circulating spiritist ideas, in small concepts, illustrated with simple images - that correspond to short quotations contained in the works of the Codification.

In this way, it will be possible to spread Spiritist contents, in a more comprehensive scope, to a more diversified audience. It will try to reach those that seek spirituality and answers, but that perhaps would be unlikely to come across Allan Kardec's works.
