INTERNATIONAL
SPIRITIST
COUNCIL

 The INTERNATIONAL SPIRITIST COUNCIL (ISC), founded on the 28th of November, in the 1992, during an assembly held in the city of Madrid, Spain, is a non-profit organization resulting from the worldwide association of representative Institutions of Union and Unification of National Spiritist Movements, legally constituted.

Mission

ISC's mission is to promote the unification of the Spiritist Movement in the world, based on the principles established by Allan Kardec, through joint action by the institutions that integrate it.

Purposes and Objectives

-  To promote the fraternal and solidary union of Spiritists and Spiritist Institutions of all countries, as well as unification of the International Spiritist Movement;
-  To promote the study and dissemination of Spiritism throughout the world, in all its three aspects: scientific, philosophical and moral/religious;
-  To promote peace and the practice of moral, spiritual and material charity in accordance with Spiritism.
-  To promote periodic meetings between its constituents (namely: National Institutions of Unification) to facilitate the exchange of information and experiences;
-  To promote and organize the completion of courses, meetings, symposiums and International Spiritist Conferences, aiming to preserve the tenets of the doctrine.
-  To cooperate, whenever requested, with its National Institutions in the development and organization of doctrinal activities, as well as those related to administration, assistance, charity, dissemination, unification and others of a Spiritist nature.
-  To promote the dissemination of Spiritism in all possible languages, through books in all its formats, campaigns, and making use of existing and future media tools, always remaining faithful to the Spiritist principles.
